It has been a very busy summer. Just a short time ago, many of us were in Pittsburgh enjoying worship and fellowship with LWML Sisters and Brothers in Christ. What a wonderful time we had. Now we are home with a renewed call for service to the Lord, refreshed and invigorated. The theme was "Quenched by the Water" based on John 4:14. On Sunday, The Rev. Victor Belton told us that being "Quenched by the Water" is a process. Our thirst will be completely quenched only when we receive our crown of glory and live with our Savior and can see Him face to face. The process involves receiving daily living water in the Sacraments, fellowship, and worship until we join our Savior face to face.

By the time you read this, we will have had a group travel to Kenya on a Short Term mission trip, and a PING (Prepare, Inspire, Nourish, Go) workshop will have been held. Focus then shifts to the planning of our district convention June 20 and 21, 2014. The theme "Rejoice in the Light" is based on John 8:12. Linda Reiser, Past President of the national LWML will be keynote speaker, and mission speakers include, Rev. Randy Golter, Executive Director of LCMS International Missions, and Rev. Andrew Richard, Pastor of St. Silas Lutheran Church in North Liberty. It will be a wonderful time of fellowship, learning, and inspiration. Please make plans to join us - more information will be coming in the winter issue of the Alive.

Fall retreat is coming as well as 2013 Zone Fall Rallies. These are all great opportunities to get together with like-minded women and men where we will be fed the water of life. I hope to see many of you at your zone rally and at retreat.

Committees are being formed for Des Moines 2015. Thanks to all of you who helped with the skit, the song, staffing the booth in Pittsburgh, and just being enthused about joining us in Des Moines. Although it's hard to wait, we will be given a theme in several months as decided on by the national LWML Convention Planning Committee. We will then leave behind the "Catch Des Moines" phrase which has served us well and move to one based on scripture. Pittsburgh Host committee chairman Maureen Consiglio attended our caucus in Pittsburgh and told us one of the hardest parts of hosting the convention was the waiting, so much waiting! She also assured us that she is at the ready to answer our questions. One of the Pittsburgh Host District Presidents told me the same, and invited me to phone if (actually it will be when) I have questions. What a wonderful sisterhood we enjoy. God has blessed us mightily!!

It's hard to believe that school supplies are already appearing in stores. WOW, what a fast world we live in. It seems summer has barely started and already we are being pushed forward to the next phase of getting back in the "groove." Being retired changes this switch in focus but I remember it well. It was excitement and, yes, some trepidation as I prepared to go back to the structured days of school and back to a work routine after a refreshing vacation. As we go through these necessary changes in our routines, let's always take the Lord with us on our journey through life. He is the one constant we can absolutely count on. He will never leave us or forsake us, and walks with us whether we stay at home or whether we travel away from home. We give thanks for His incredible love for each of us!

Your Sister in Christ,

Janice Johnston
LWML IED President

Counselor's Corner

Dear Purple Ladies,

The Pittsburgh convention was fabulouso!

How do I know that? I keep remembering.

It is said 50% of any lecture/presentation is forgotten within 20 minutes of the presentation. My "How to Study in College" class suggested reviewing notes/handouts immediately afterwards. In June, at one of the convention dinners, a table of ten (5 Iowans and 5 North Dakotans) did just that. The question: What was the best part of today's convention (6-29-13)?

- "Donna Pyle's Bible Studies, dude."
(Had to be there for that last word.)
- "The Mites in Action speakers. Amazing how our mites are used around the world."
- "Anyone more humorous than Elaine Bickel?"

Personally, my time in the Mission Grants booth was exceptional. Like a carnival barker, many women were cajoled (by me & others) to spend 30 seconds learning about free resources crafted for each of the national projects ($1,830,000.00 pledged for the next two years). We'd say, "Go to the LWML website. Click on Mission Grants. A list of downloadable materials appears. Click and here's what you'll get."

My unscientific survey revealed:

- 5% said, "I'm not on the Web." (And you thought LWML was old!)
- 40% said, "Been there" or "I'm the Mission Grants chairman for our district."
- 50% said, "Wow! I didn't know all this free stuff was available."

• 5% pulled a friend to our table, “Hey, look at this.”

Most LWML’ers then got this question: “Are you coming to Des Moines in 2015 (Dates: June 25-28, 2015)?” Convention won’t get any closer! One lady confessed her distaste for flying. (She drove to Pittsburgh). Would singing help convince her to endure the trip? I sang the “Come to Des Moines” song and she laughed (at my singing?). “God willing, I’m going to make the trip!” YES!

Pittsburgh was inspiration. But like any presentation, it’s best to review when you’re back in the routine. Even months later. The memories return. Joy!

Our Lord will provide more joy in Des Moines in less than two years. At least 500 hundred volunteers will be needed. (It takes folks to host a convention!) But so worth the effort. Pray for Marilyn Schroeder, the convention chair. Pray for these committee leaders: Sharon Andresen, Kathryn Sprecher, Tracy Stetzel, Judy Westergren, Laura Woebeking, and for Carole White, the convention treasurer.

Because our Lord’s mercy endures forever, He will provide (s)table moments, when 5 North Dakotans and 5 Iowans will reminisce over the best part of the day. Des Moines 2015 is already caught by the One, who is “the Alpha and the Omega...who is and who was and who is to come...” (Rev. 1:8).

He will be almighty...through the work of our hands.

Peace after Pittsburgh,

Pastor Greg Williamson
Senior Counselor

GOSPEL OUTREACH

While getting back to your normal routines of LWML society meetings, fall zone rallies, and other seasonal LWML events, I would like to encourage active LWML members to help all LCMS women become familiar with the mission goals of the LWML Iowa East District. A quick trip to the Mission Grants page at www.lwml-ied.org and www.lwml.org will be great places to start. You might wish to distribute mite boxes to all women in your congregation on LWML Sunday to expand your mite box giving. Better yet, include the children of the congregation by giving out the specially designed children’s mite box, along with the suggestion of trying mite giving for a specified period of time (LWML Sunday until New Year’s Day is one example).

Be sure to include a creative list of ideas for when it would be appropriate to slip some coins into a mite box. Some mite box owners deposit coins after returning cans and bottles for recycling. How about keeping a box in your closet for loose pocket change or the coins that fall to the bottom of your purse? My laundry room mite box gets fed frequently when I find coins in the washer or dryer. (Yes, you can have more than one mite box in your home!) Children can be taught good stewardship practices by having them place a portion of their allowance into the children’s mite box.

Getting more people involved in mite giving helps the LWML IED meet our mission goals. It also helps spread awareness about the great need to feed school children around the globe, the importance of educating young people to become LCMS pastors and teachers, and the value of partnerships to support college campus ministries, LCMS schools, and new mission churches, just to name a few. Mite giving is a wonderful way to expand the LWML circle of caring. So... make it a new fall routine to order a supply of mite boxes and implement creative ways to increase the number of active mite givers in Iowa East District!

CHRISTIAN GROWTH

How do you stand? Some people would say, "On my own two feet." Others may say as they age, "I'm sort of wobbly" or "slowly and with help." So what would you say? As Christians we may say, "Only with the help of God."

We cannot choose or dictate how others may stand. But with God's help we can learn how and when to stand and on what. We learn that Jesus loved the sinner but not the sin. From Christ we need to follow His example. We all need to learn when to agree or disagree and what action to take.

Standing up for Christ is not easy and may not make us popular. Don't be deceived into thinking the devil is at work only in outside situations. He is working within us, our church, our community, and our nation. When seeing only the outside of a person we can't always truly know the why behind another's action. It is better to wait and see if the action is consistent with that person's other actions.

The most important Christian you can be is a living example of Christ to the world. In your personal life, church, or community, your consistent actions are what people see. Your actions and words are the living example of an open Bible. The Holy Spirit is our guide. He will, through prayer, give us the words to speak and the actions to do. He will also guide us when we need to be quiet.

Through prayer and listening to the Holy Spirit we can face, with courage, when and what to do to be the living example Christ expects us to be...Living Witnesses!

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

I think all who were in Pittsburgh for the LWML Convention would agree that it was a mountaintop experience. Four times we listened to dynamic readings of John 4. Our thirst for God's Word was quenched in many ways.

But we can't stay on the mountain. Family, work, and meals call for our attention. ALIVE reports must be prepared and written. The woman at the well didn't stay there with Jesus. She hurried back to Sychar to do His will. We, too, seek to do His will where He has placed us. The more relaxed schedules of summer revitalized us to now get "back to Sychar." (I hope you start by reading John 4.)

You are doing God's Work through your memorials and honorariums totaling $1515 received from January 1 through June 30, 2013. God-willing, I will be at the Fall Retreat with extra mite boxes and remittance blank books.

On a personal note, my mother-in-law, Vera Huedepohl, received her crown of glory this summer at age 95. We are happy for her, our faithful prayer warrior, but we are adjusting to the hole in our family.

Serving Him with you,
Helen Huedepohl
IED Financial Secretary

P.S. How many of you are fighting for the privilege of being Financial Secretary next?

HUMAN CARE

Therefore as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love which binds them all together in perfect unity. Col 3:12-14 NIV

Lutheran Family Service (LFS) has ventured into a new area of ministry, in hosting a first-time retreat at Camp Okoboji last fall, for birth mothers who have placed their newborn children with adopting families. Each mother's personal story of unplanned pregnancy, delivery and letting her infant go to adoptive parents was emotional for all. Some were recent; some were as far back as 1968. Each story had its own set of circumstances. Some were very painful for the women to tell. Society, families, nurses and social workers weren't always very kind to birth mothers in earlier days. These women still silently bear the wounds from the actions and words of others which have not been spoken of or shared over the years. Pastor David Loeschen of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Denison led lessons throughout the weekend, which focused their attention on the many ways that God cares for them. They talked about how God has used events and unexpected directions in their lives for their good and to bring goodness into the lives of others. Not all in attendance were believers. What an opportunity to share the message of God's love.

Lutheran Family Service provided this retreat without any cost to the birth mothers, thanks to the support of many of you who care for these women through gifts to LFS. If you know a birth mother, please encourage and help her to contact LFS for information. (515.573.3138 or email info@lfsiowa.org) Please keep LFS in your prayers, they provide a wonderful service in many areas of life.

Bylaws

Bylaws should be reviewed at least every 2 years, and changed to conform to the changes that have been made in your group.

Changes that need to be addressed if bylaws have not been reviewed within the last 2 years:

- 1) The name of our district is Iowa East District LWML. (not Iowa District East LWML). The national LWML has re-named our district to conform to the official names of all other districts including the direction –i.e. North, South, East and West.
- 2) The "Bylaws" Committee at the district and national levels is now named the "Structure" Committee. Your zone/society should consider using the term "Structure Committee" to conform to the district/national term.
- 3) Mites are to be submitted to the LWML "Financial Secretary." This position has been added to receive funds at the District level.
- 4) Any references to the LWML Iowa East District newsletter as the "Iowa District East Alive" – which was the previous formal name, please change it to "Alive in Iowa East District" or refer to it as the LWML Iowa East District newsletter.

Societies and zones reviewing their bylaws should follow the procedures below:

- 1) Check the procedures in place for making changes (often a committee is appointed or assigned).
- 2) Note items within the bylaws that need to be changed (officers or committees not listed, meeting times changed, etc.)
- 3) LWML bylaws changes of a society need to be reviewed by a Zone Structure (Bylaws) committee prior to approval of the society. The zone bylaws changes will need to be reviewed by the District Structure committee prior to approval of the zone.

Please direct any questions to me.

Alice Noelck, a member of St John Lutheran Church in Melcher, recently celebrated her 90th birthday. She remains active in the LWML, visits the sick and shut-ins, serves as treasurer for the local food pantry, and in the past has served as secretary and treasurer for her society and also as her zone World Relief reporter. Alice is still active in making quilts for World Relief and estimates that she has made over 100 quilts. She makes the tops at her home and takes them to church where other members gather to tie them.

At their June meeting, the LWML of St John Lutheran Church, State Center made patriotic napkin holders (using a #10 envelope). The napkin holders were given to the local nursing home for each of the residents to have one at their 4th of July meal. They make these holders for several holidays throughout the year.

The Cedar Rapids Zone LWML Spring Rally was hosted by the women of Our Redeemer, Iowa City on April 7, 2013. The theme for the rally was "Now this is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent," John 17:3. The ingathering was money collected for Swaziland to which Anita Nicholson, speaker, travels as a parish nurse and helps the people of Swaziland with health issues. Bible study was led by Pastor Richard from St Silas Lutheran Church, North Liberty.

Thank you, dear sisters of Iowa East for your prayers and kind words. What an awesome experience it was to be on the ballot at the LWML convention in Pittsburgh! Although I was not elected, I was honored to be among the candidates. Because of my bio information in the convention manual, many people spoke with me about their Iowa connections. I would encourage others to consider being a candidate at any level of the LWML. It is an honor and a privilege to serve the LWML where ever the Lord leads us.

READY SET RECYCLE

The 2015 LWML Convention in Des Moines was promoted at a booth at the 2013 LWML convention in Pittsburgh. The promotional expenses were paid from the Ready Set Recycle funds. The balance after the Pittsburgh convention expenses in the 2015 Convention fund is $22,915.69.

As the 2015 LWML convention nears these funds will continue to pay for expenses we will incur. As we get back to our “regular” routine now that summer is over I encourage you to get back into a routine of recycling your unwanted electronic items. As you can see by the amount we have raised, this has been a very successful fund raiser for us. All glory to God!

The Bible teaches us in many scriptures that God is always present in our lives; always reaching, always holding, always giving, always sharing. The symbolism of the hands cupping the water invokes the emotion of sharing and reaching out to us with His precious “water” of life. The water droplets escaping between the fingers is to remind us how precious His gift to us is, how important even the smallest droplet is to our spiritual well-being and how our need is to drink and be satisfied. We are also reminded that not only is the spiritual water shared with us, but His love for us symbolized by the purple heart and His grace given to us reflected by the golden cross. We cherish these gifts just as He cherishes us.
